Create your Bitwarden Account

Create your Bitwarden Account

We are thrilled to be a part of your secure information management journey. To create a Bitwarden account, select the Get Started button on our homepage, or click here.

Create your account

On the Create account screen, enter your Email address and choose a domain from the Creating account on dropdown:

Tip

Your Bitwarden account can be created on our cloud servers in the United States or European Union, or on a self-hosted server. To choose which server to create your account on, scroll to the bottom of the page and use the Server or Logging in on dropdown to make a selection before submitting the form.

When you're happy with your master password, select Create account. You'll also have the option to check known data breaches for the password (learn more) before submitting a master password.

Create an account from an organization invite

Organizations can invite users to sign up for Bitwarden. If you have been invited to an organization, check your email for an invitation from Bitwarden to join the organization. Open the email before it expires and select Join Organization Now.

Verify your email

Once you have created your account, prompt Bitwarden to send you a verification email by logging in to your web vault and selecting the Verify Email button. If you were prompted to verify your email during account creation, as described above, you can skip this step.
